The Starting Questions

Question 1: What are your weak points and strong points in group work?
Communication, decision-making, scheduling, conflict resolution, etc...

- Strong in decision-making and planning

- Weaker in being very straightforward, which can sometimes make communication less direct.

Question 2: What do you hope to learn as a group during the project?
Communication skills, time-management, conflict-resolution skills.

Gain more room for presentation practice and strengthen communication in group settings.

Question 3: What do you think the assignment is asking you to do?

- I think the assignment asks us to critically explore linguistic data and modeling
- Paying attention to nuance in language.

Question 4: What role do you hope to fulfill during the group project?
Leader, communicator, to keep the overview, note-taker, etc...

Keep everything on track and take a leadership role.

Question 5: Which part of the group assignment do you want to take the lead on?
Writing, researching, formatting, etc...

Writing and formatting paper

Question 6: What are your goals for the project?
A high grade, a passing grade, to learn something new?

Finish the work on time.

Question 7: What type of worker are you?
What are your individual strengths and weaknesses? Writing, researching, formatting, etc....

Goal-oriented and planning-focused, with strength in maintaining structure and direction.

Question 8: What personal development goal do you have for this group project?
Become a better listener, take the lead more often, etc.....

Improve collaboration in a multinational, multidisciplinary, and multilingual group setting.

Question 9 (Optional): Give a description of your colour and how you identify with it
For the test, visit our website to find out which colour describes you

DO YOU WANT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT COLLABORATION? CHECK OUT OUR WEBSITE