The Starting Questions

Question 1: What are your weak points and strong points in group work?
Communication, decision-making, scheduling, conflict resolution, etc...

- Strong in organization, careful note-taking, and keeping track of discussion points

- Weaker in speaking up quickly in group decisions

Question 2: What do you hope to learn as a group during the project?
Communication skills, time-management, conflict-resolution skills.

Learn how to coordinate ideas clearly within a group and improve consistency in teamwork.

Question 3: What do you think the assignment is asking you to do?

It asks us to reflect on how syntax and semantics can be represented in computational models.

Question 4: What role do you hope to fulfill during the group project?
Leader, communicator, to keep the overview, note-taker, etc...

Note-taker and documentation support.

Question 5: Which part of the group assignment do you want to take the lead on?
Writing, researching, formatting, etc...

Researching interesting points of each part and address it by relative documents

Question 6: What are your goals for the project?
A high grade, a passing grade, to learn something new?

Dive deeper into the most interesting sections of the assignment and learn from them.

Question 7: What type of worker are you?
What are your individual strengths and weaknesses? Writing, researching, formatting, etc....

Careful, structured, and supportive, with strength in keeping information organized.

Question 8: What personal development goal do you have for this group project?
Become a better listener, take the lead more often, etc.....

Become more confident in contributing ideas and taking initiative during group discussions.

Question 9 (Optional): Give a description of your colour and how you identify with it
For the test, visit our website to find out which colour describes you

I think pink is my color since it is elegant and soft.

DO YOU WANT TO LEARN MORE ABOUT COLLABORATION? CHECK OUT OUR WEBSITE